Montrose Botanical Society
2016 UPCOMING EVENTS

INTRODUCTION TO BUTTERFLIES April 14 (Thurs.) 7pm – 8:30 pm
Mike Fisher, butterfly expert, will discuss butterflies and their importance in nature and gardens. At Centennial Room off Centennial Plaza, 433 S. 1st Street

CONTAINER GARDENING WITH FLOWERS AND VEGETABLES
April 30 (Sat.) 9:30am-11am
Betty Hall, Master Gardener, will share her knowledge of container gardening.
At the Centennial Room off Centennial Plaza, 433 S. 1st Street

CONSERVING OUR WESTERN COLORADO NATIVE BEES
May 12 (Thurs.) 7pm–8:30pm
Bob Hammon, Entomologist for the Tri River Extension Area, will talk about the three steps to a conservation bee project and how to apply these steps to our native bee populations.
At the Centennial Room off Centennial Plaza, 433 S. 1st Street

GARDEN TOUR June 11 (Sat.) 9am-1pm
Tour the Montrose Botanic Gardens plus stroll through five beautiful, local gardens. Tickets available at www.montrosegardens.org, Camelot and San Juan Gardens.
$10/members; $15/non-members.

KIDS IN THE GARDENS July 12 (Tues.) 9am-11am "Drop-in"
Come have fun doing print-making with leaves.
The class will take place at the Montrose Botanical Gardens.

MAKE A TUFA POT IN THE GARDENS August 20 (Sat.) 9am - 11am
Come make a lightweight, molded concrete Tufa pot with Susan Honea, Tri River Extension Area Horticulture Agent. These are great backdrops for small plants such as cactus, succulents and alpine plants.
Pre-registration is required to ensure enough material. Please email kfsee11@yahoo.com with "Tufa Workshop" in the subject line. You will recieve back a list of items to bring. Space is limited.
$25/members; $30/non-members. This fee will help cover the cost of materials.

SCARECROW FESTIVAL October 15 & 16 (Sat. 10am – 4pm, Sun. 12pm – 4pm)
Create a unique scarecrow or tour them at the Festival. Donated scarecrows will be part of a Silent Auction to help benefit the Gardens.

Unless noted, all events OPEN TO PUBLIC - FREE
www.MontroseGardens.org