

What are Montrose Bucks?

Montrose Bucks are the City of Montrose's local currency. Accepted as legal tender by most local businesses, Bucks are available for purchase at the Downtown Visitor Center.

By using Bucks, we express our willingness to keep the community vital by shopping local and supporting local merchants. Bucks can be given as gifts, rewards, and incentives by individuals and businesses alike.

Program Guidelines

- Guaranteed by the Office of Business and Tourism
- Available with short processing time
- Not redeemable for cash
- LOOK FOR AN EXPIRATION DATE
 - Bank rules regarding validity apply
 - If expired, Bucks will not be reissued
 - Use within six months of date of issue (or by the expiration date for promotional Bucks)

Using Your Bucks

- Ensure the business accepts Bucks
 - Look for the Bucks window cling
 - Look for the Bucks program poster
 - Ask a store employee
- Select your purchase(s)
- Offer your Bucks as payment
- Be sure to use your Bucks before they expire

For The Business

- Prominently display Bucks materials
- Check for expiration date
- Transact the Buck(s) as a check
- Determine the store policy for sales less than the value of the Buck:
 - Provide change in cash
 - Issue a store gift card
 - Do neither
